Advanced Reading

Description:
Advance Reading is designed for students of English Language Education Department at semester 4. This course presents various materials covering 4 kinds of texts consisting of popular, scientific, literary and academic papers. These materials are designed to builds and refines skills learned in advanced-level reading and critical thinking in the context of daily/general, academic, and work not only in terms of general English but also English for Specific Purposes.

Material:
1. Popular texts
2. Scientific texts
3. Literary texts
Academic papers