Critical Thinking in Academic Life

Description:
This course aims to develop students' reasoning on academic life practice. In addition, in this course, students will learn how to (1) critically listen, read, present, and write an academic issue; (2) separate bad and good information from printed and online sources; (3) analyse and construct arguments; (4) develop intellectual and personal discipline.

Material:
1. Introduction to critical thinking in academic life
2. Critical thinking and verbal communication
3. Educational attitudes in particular country
4. Family and cultural conflicts
5. Work values
6. Academic misconduct
7. Academic controversial issue
8. Critical Review