Introduction to Linguistics

Description:
This course is designed to provide students with introductory knowledge of language and linguistics; basic concepts of various levels of linguistic structure (phonology and phonetics, morphology, syntax & semantics), language use (sociolinguistics & pragmatics) and language acquisition (psycholinguistics); and their potential application to the language teaching.

Material:
1. Basic concept of language and linguistics
2. Phonology and Phonetics
3. Morphology
4. Syntax
5. Semantics
6. Sociolinguistics
7. Pragmatics
8. Psycholinguistics
9. Trends and issues in Linguistics