Microteaching

Description:
Microteaching equips and prepares ELED students to master theoretical concepts of micro teaching, to design learning concepts or lesson planning based on the applicable curriculum, and to practice the concepts in teaching-learning activities for at intermediate and post-intermediate levels.

Material:
1. The concept, purpose, and benefits of micro teaching
2. The model of micro teaching implementation
3. The steps of teaching and learning proses
4. Classroom management
5. Designing integrated skill lesson plan for at intermediate and post-intermediate levels.
6. Practicing the lesson plan design in the classroom at intermediate and post-intermediate levels