Thesis Writing and Proposal Seminar

Description:
In this course, students will evaluate and develop their thesis writing abilities and skills. The material covers the overall structure of the thesis; brainstorming ideas, writing the introduction; the literature review; the methodology; discussion; drawing conclusion, and the abstract. In addition, the course will involve writing an article for journal and preparing for seminar/conference presentations.

Material:
1. Brainstorming on research topics (pedagogy, TESOL, TEFL, linguistics, literature, applied linguistics)
2. Selections on research topic novelty
3. Resourcing relevant previous studies
4. Writing Introduction
   a. Writing previous research articles
   b. Writing research gap
   c. Writing research novelty
5. Writing Literature Review
6. Writing Method (research design, population and sampling, research subject/object, instrument, and data analysis)
7. Writing Discussion
8. Drawing Conclusion
9. Writing Abstract
10. Presenting research proposal
11. Referencing manager